

COLUMBIA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

"Discovering History, Pride of Place and Community"

Discovering, Collecting & Preserving
The History of Columbia
(CELEBRATING 50 YEARS)

VISIT US AT OUR WEBSITE www.columbia-history.org

EACH CELEBRATING 50 YEARS OF COMMUNITY SERVICE.

THE COLUMBIA HISTORICAL SOCIETY and THE LEBANON
HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Co-host

"WHAT MAKES CONNECTICUT,
CONNECTICUT"

presented by

WALT WOODWARD, CT STATE HISTORIAN
and
THE BAND OF STEADY HABITS

SUNDAY, NOV. 13, 2PM
YEOMANS HALL
323 RT 87, COLUMBIA

What Makes Connecticut, Connecticut? During the three year long (2012-2016) process of gathering images of our state's iconic places and cultural treasures for the US Library of Congress, acclaimed photographer Carol M. Highsmith and state historian and Columbia resident, Walt Woodward reached a new realization about the characteristics underlying our state's uniquely individual character. In "What Makes Connecticut, Connecticut," Woodward, accompanied by The Band of Steady Habits, uses exquisite Highsmith images, a powerful story, and evocative and moving songs from the past and present to describe the look, feel, and unique character of one of America's first- and most original – states.

THIS EXCEPTIONAL PROGRAM IS OPEN TO THE PUBLIC WITHOUT CHARGE.

PLEASE JOIN US! REFRESHMENTS WILL BE SERVED.